

the muskoka sun

FREE!

INSIDE THIS ISSUE

- Sign up for the first GeoCache Bash, page 2
- Lake associations make plans for election, page 4
- Taking the intimidation factor out of roses, page 8

CELEBRATING OUR 40TH YEAR AS MUSKOKA-GEORGIAN BAY'S FAVOURITE COTTAGE NEWSPAPER • September 9, 2010

Nature's gateway

CIRCULAR THRESHOLD. Australian artist Bev Hogg (far right) shows off 'View Finder – Gateway', her contribution to The Tree Museum in Gravenhurst. The site-specific installation is a collection of twigs and branches formed to make a circular opening, which resembles a transitional point where you are drawn forward to the framed waterscape and emerge through the opening into nature. Pictured with Hogg are, from left, Linda Blix and Ruth Kendall of Bracebridge and artist Jeannie Thib of Toronto, who also has work on display at the museum. The exhibit is on until October 28. (Photo by Allyson Snelling)

THE UPPER LOFT & THE BOATHOUSE

Located at Port Sandfield Marina, 5 minutes from Port Carling

1327 Peninsula Rd. (#7)
Port Sandfield (705) 765-3147

End of Season Sale

Selected Footwear & Clothing up to 50% off*

Sebago • Sperry • UGG • Vineyard Vines • Saint James • Lacoste

www.PORTSANDFIELD.com

*off regular price